Featuring: Dr. Kathleen Chard, Ph.D., Director of the PTSD and Anxiety Disorders of the Cincinnati VA Medical Center

Dr. Kathleen Chard is currently the Director of the Posttraumatic Stress and Anxiety Disorders Division of the Cincinnati VA Medical Center. The clinic provides support and treatment for trauma and anxiety in the veteran population, including children trauma, military sexual trauma, and combat trauma. She also serves as an Associate Professor of Clinical Psychiatry at the University of Cincinnati's College of Medicine. Dr. Chard's career includes extensive experience in trauma treatment and research in both the private and government sectors. Currently, her focus is on providing efficacy-based cognitive behavioral treatment for veterans with PTSD in both outpatient or residential treatment programs. This treatment is recognized as one of the most effective and innovative treatments for trauma, and is being implemented at VA Hospitals across the United States. Dr. Chard has conducted several funded studies on the treatment and etiology of PTSD and is co-author of the Cognitive Processing Therapy: Military Version manual. She has over 20 publications and 40 presentations related to identification and efficacy-based treatment of psychological disorders, including PTSD.

She spoke at the first Ohio Women Veterans' Conference in Oct 2006 and you don't want to miss what she has to say and what she and the VA are doing.

Auxiliary Corner

(Please note that this article is for informational purposes only and is not intended as advice)

I've been an auxiliary member of MOAA for many years, but it wasn't until after I joined the Auxiliary Member Advisory Committee that I discovered the extensive member services MOAA provides, either directly or by partnering with others. One of my tasks as an advisor is attending meetings of the Member Services Committee, and I can tell you this group works hard to ensure MOAA members have excellent, dependable, and fully vetted services. There are too many to discuss in full here, but I will mention those that the Auxiliary members might find most appealing and helpful.

Legal and financial help are offered at a discount. If you need to update your will or health care directives, you can contact the lawyers on MOAA's approved list, who offer up to 25-percent off these and other legal services. MOAA partner Garrett Planning Network offers members a 20-percent discount on financial planning services.

Concerned about preserving assets in care you require extensive health care? After carefully examining the many policies on the market, MOAA offers Long Term care policies through its insurance provider, Marsh Affinity Group Services.

There's also the Bank of America credit cards and certificates of deposit. You'll receive air mileage and other reward points with the MOAA Bank of America credit card. And through MOAA's partner travel agency, MOAA Vacations, you can arrange tours, cruises, and customized travel.

For more information, call MOAA's Member Service Center at (800) 234-MOAA (6622) or visit online, www.moaa.org/services.

Guest columnist Anne Patton, MOAA's Auxiliary Member Advisory Committee

IF any Auxiliary Member is interested in being an auxiliary liaison for our Chapter, please contact Kym Mader, Chapter President, and let me know. We would welcome having a more active role by Auxiliary Members. And welcome them to our Chapter Board as well.

Air Force Afterburner Newsletter

For Air Force retirees who enjoy receiving the Afterburner newsletter, this publication is no longer being printed (too expensive to produce it on paper and mail it). However, it is available online. To get the current issue (as well as past issues), here's the procedure:

Go to the Air Force Personnel Center's Web site at <http://ask.afpc.randolph.af.mil/>. Click on the "Retirees/Veterans" icon. After clicking on the "Retirees/Veterans" icon, then click on the line "Afterburner, News-USAF Retired Personnel" in the gray box under the blue heading "Military Retiree Services" in the upper left-hand corner. Then click on the appropriate answer number for "Afterburner -- News for USAF Retired Personnel" and then scroll down (using the innermost scroll bar) and all the Afterburners will be there.

DirectClaim

MOAA is proud to introduce DirectClaim, a new electronic filing process for members' MEDIPLUS® TRICARE Supplement claims. The new DirectClaim process will handle most eligible claims quicker, pay faster, and reduce the need for members to complete MEDIPLUS® claim forms and submit them with their TRICARE Explanation of Benefits (EOB) forms. Click here for more details on how MOAA's DirectClaim feature works.

Since 1981, MOAA has worked with Marsh Affinity Group Services, a service of Seabury & Smith, Inc. to administer our sponsored Group Insurance Plans. You may qualify for these plans, which have been negotiated exclusively on behalf of MOAA members to complement your and your family's military entitlements at reasonable rates. Click here for complete descriptions (including costs, exclusions, limitations, and terms of coverage) of MOAA-sponsored Insurance Plans, including:

- MEDIPLUS® TRICARE Supplements, including a TRS supplement that specifically complements the TRICARE Reserve Select program,
- Term Life insurance,
- Long Term Care insurance,
- And more.

Access to MOAA Insurance Plans is a benefit available only to current MOAA members. Membership in MOAA is open to all commissioned officers and warrant officers in all seven branches of uniformed service - whether active, retired, former, Guard, or Reserve. Click here to update your member record, renew your membership, or upgrade to Life membership today.

If you know of anyone who qualifies for membership in MOAA and would be interested in this member benefit, please forward this message. If you received this e-mail by forwarding, sign up for MOAA membership today and receive notices of member benefits automatically!

2007 DUES ARE DUE! Please pay now- IF you haven't done so.

To determine whether your dues are paid, please check your address sticker on the other side of this form. The year is shown for the latest year for which your dues are paid. (Life members show LIFE). If your number is (2005) or lower, please return this form (with your name sticker on reverse) along with a check for your dues to bring you up to current year. Please mark your selection of dues (one year, multi-year or life). For those of you who receive your newsletter by email, your dues date is located in the TO line of your email after your name. If you are moving out of state and don't want to continue your chapter membership or have any other status change, please let us know. Also please indicate on your check the year(s) your dues are for.

“GIVE ME 10”

Are you a member of the chapter, but not National MOAA? Has your National MOAA membership lapsed? Is there someone you know that is an Active, Reserve, Guard, Former, or Retired Officer? Invite them to the luncheons and tell them how they can be a part of MOAA. Contact LTC Paul Fellingner (513 451-9881) or email paulf@shriverco.com for more information. Bring in a new member today.

LAST MEETING

With nearly 40 in attendance at the last meeting we were treated to a very enlightening History lesson of Spring Grove Cemetery and Arboretum by Phil Nuxhall. There is quite a Military history there as well. It is a place with a lot of history. We enjoyed the presence of members who attended for the first time and the meal was one no one left hungry with the Seafood Buffet.
