

What has MOAA
done for me lately?

“Recently, MOAA helped pass a new GI Bill for the 21st Century.

Today, they helped me
protect my family’s future.”

One Powerful Voice.[®] Hundreds of Ways to Help.

For over 80 years, the Military Officers Association of America (MOAA) has been serving those who serve their country. With more than 370,000 members from every branch of service, including active duty, retired, Guard and Reserve officers, and their families, we're proud to be the country's largest and most influential military officers association.

We're officers just like you, so we understand the needs and concerns of officers and their families — and we're here to help you meet life's challenges along the way.

As a professional organization, MOAA also helps members take charge of their lives. Members enjoy a host of benefits, discounts, and services — including career planning, benefits counseling, and college scholarships and loans — designed to address the real-life issues officers face every day.

Join the one military association that's with you every step of the way — serving your needs and fighting for your rights. Whether you're deployed overseas, making the transition to a second career, or grappling with your retirement benefits, the Military Officers Association of America is on your side for life.
